Young honored as WMC Employee of the Quarter

FRANKLIN, TENN. – Nutritional Services employee Michelle Young recently was honored as Williamson Medical Center Employee of the Quarter for the second quarter of 2010.

Young received a $500 check, a reserved parking spot and a chance to be recognized as WMC’s Employee of the Year. Employees were nominated for the award by their co-workers for upholding WMC’s Standards of Performance.

Young began as a cook in WMC’s cafeteria more than 12 years ago. Since that time she has coordinated special functions and catering needs, and she currently serves as retail supervisor.

“Michelle is one of the most sincere, caring, hard-working people I have ever had the opportunity to work with,” says Christine Hartman, director of Nutritional Services. “She makes my job and many others’ so much easier.”

Prior to joining Williamson Medical Center, Young worked in the Brentwood High School cafeteria for 10 years. A Columbia resident, she says she commutes to WMC because she loves the people.

“I love working with people, and everyone at Williamson—from my co-workers to visitors—really cares for one another,” she says. “There is a culture of hospitality and giving here that is hard to find.”

Other nominees for Employee of the Quarter were Renae Dawson (Third Floor), Danielle Pettus (Patient Financial Services), Emigdio Rabeles (Environmental Services), Kerrie Rowland, R.R.T. (Hospital Medical Services) and Kerri White, R.N. (Critical Care Unit).

Williamson Medical Center is a 185-bed hospital fully accredited by The Joint Commission that provides comprehensive inpatient and outpatient care including emergency services, with credentialed physicians in 53 specialties and sub-specialties. The community-focused hospital offers a wide range of wellness services, screenings and classes.
